Put on a post-party face

Syrie Johnson on city-slicker skincare

IT'S no surprise — London is the most polluted city in the EU, bar Athens. Add partying, cigarette smoke and hangovers, and it can add up to a face like last night's ashtray. But you can halt the urban decay. First, drop into Harvey Nichols for a snifter at the Oxygen bar (£10 a month, 020 7235 5000), and pick up some spray-on-the-tongue vitamins (Sprayology, £19.50).

Kiss Me Mascara (£15 from Pout, 020 7379 0379): Want to flutter your lashes like J-Lo and Calista Flockhart? Their secret is Kiss Me Mascara, which forms tiny tubes around every lash and doesn't clump, smear or smudge. Great for steamy club nights. 9/10

Guerlain Issima Midnight Star Radiance Treatment (£28, 01932

233 874): These 10 ampoules are like injecting beauty sleep. It creates a radiant protective film against cigarette smoke, pollution and dirty stop-outs. 9/10

Shu Uemura UV Under base SPF 17 (£20, 020 7573 9492): Cameron Diaz buys this matt sun filter. I prefer Osea Atmosphere Protection Cream (£20, Harvey Nichols), a skin eco-shield for all skin types. 7/10

3C Liner (£10, from Pout): Apply the skin-coloured Clarifier pencil on the inner rim of the eye to cover any post-party redness. J-Lo's a fan, and Glenn Close ordered one for Oscar night. 8/10
